

Little Helper, Big Imagination

written by Emily Morrow

illustrated by Sally Garland

Activity Guide

Complete the Scene

Does your room ever need tidying up? Sometimes we have so much fun, that our bedrooms become messy! Draw a scene below showing what your messy room might look like.

Now draw a scene below showing what your room might look like after you've cleaned it up!

H<sub>2</sub>O

Extension Activities

Grab your copy of Little Helper, Big Imagination and explore additional creative thinking to make everyday tasks fun and imaginative!

10 Creative Extension Activities to Make Household Chores a Blast for Kids (Ages 3-8)

Hey there, intrepid explorers and magical creatures of wonder! Are you ready to transform boring chores into epic adventures? Grab your capes, wands, and thinking caps, because we're about to make magic happen with these 10 exciting activities.

Ready, set, sparkle!

1. Pirate Treasure Hunt:

Ahoy, mateys! Time to swab the deck (aka mop the floors). Hide small treasures around the house. Each shiny floor spot reveals a clue to where the treasure lies.

2. Space Mission Cleanup:

Astronauts needed! Our spaceship is cluttered, and we need brave souls to help organize toys and books back into their right galaxies. Use your best moonwalk moves as you zoom around.

3. Superhero Laundry League:

Calling all superheroes! We've got costumes (ahem, I mean, laundry) that need rescuing from the evil floor. Sort them by color to power up each item with cleanliness energy!

4. Magical Gardeners:

Transform watering plants into a magical affair. Pretend the water is a magic potion making our plant friends grow. Each drop whispers secrets of the jungle. Can you hear them?

5. The Great Sock Hunt

Transform the task of matching socks into a thrilling hunt for lost treasure. Each matched pair is a piece of the puzzle that leads to a hidden treasure (maybe a small treat or storytime with a favorite book).

6. Cinderella's Race Against Time:

Oh no, Cinderella needs to tidy up before the stroke of noon! Who can beat the clock? Sweep, dust, and organize with the speed of light to win an invitation to the royal ball.

7. Dragon's Hoard Sorting Challenge:

Dragons love shiny things! Sort through toys, craft materials, and even socks like a dragon deciding what to add to its hoard. The more organized, the better protected your treasures will be.

8. Underwater World Adventure:

Put on your fins because we're diving deep to explore the ocean (aka the bathtub) and rescue the sea creatures (your bath toys). Make sure they're sparkle clean before.

9. Garden Gnomes' Treasure

Watering the garden isn't just a chore; it's a crucial quest in the secret life of garden gnomes. Every plant watered helps the gnomes uncover hidden treasures beneath the earth.

10. Feeding the Hungry T-Rex

Picky eaters? Not anymore! Setting the table becomes feeding a famished T-Rex. Every utensil and plate is another tasty treat to satisfy its dino-sized hunger.

About the Book

Little Helper, Big Imagination

9780310158127

How can you turn a day filled with normal things like breakfast and chores into an unforgettable adventure? Use your IMAGINATION! Little Helper, Big Imagination, by Really Very Crunchy mom and author Emily Morrow, is a unique picture book perfect for kids and grownups looking to transform an ordinary day into something playful and fun.

Any task can be turned into an opportunity for fun if you're ready to use your imagination.

About the Author

Emily Morrow is the creator of Really Very Crunchy, a viral social media presence with more than two million followers. She and her husband, Jason, have traveled the world together, creating video content for the last fifteen years. Emily has a love of different cultures, people who think differently, and things that grow from the earth.

www.reallyverycrunchy.com

 ZONDERkidz